1. Plans for the setting up of a Communist underground organization were made at a recent Czech Communist Party meeting in Prague. This underground would be activated in the event of an overthrow of the present regime by democratic forces.
 2. Provisions would be made for the clandestine transportation of Communist leaders across the frontier into other satellite states, and funds are being established abroad for the use of these persons in such an emergency. Agents are currently being sent abroad to make preparations.
 3. Reliable Communists have already been selected to serve in the underground organization within Czechoslovakia. For purposes of cover, these agents are being subjected to the same sort of persecution which is meted out to known anti-Communists. Any financial losses which they may incur are, however, being repaid from secret funds. Arms and radio transmitters, as well as money, are being distributed to these trained activists.
